

our vision:

disciples whose music-making reflects Jesus.

our mission:

training and resources in worship and music for the everyday Anabaptist.

Dear Friends,

We are on the cusp of full-blown spring in VA, and have just celebrated Easter. The Resurrection has implications for our work. In light of the mind-blowing truth of the Resurrection, says the Apostle Paul in 1 Corinthians 15, “Therefore... be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.” Somehow, our work figures into God’s long-range strategic plan.

We often ask how this work affects the people we interact with. At a recent camp in Holmes County, Ohio, I was struck again by the change that can happen when people get some basic training. It’s rewarding to see adult students move from intimidated to eager. (On their own initiative, they arrived early Sunday morning to practice their choir music!) The light in their eyes says a lot. Seeds have been planted which will slowly grow and bear fruit.

I mentioned in a recent email that I have often been amazed as I watch the network of believers who make the work of the Kingdom happen. As a music camp donor, you have invested in a vision and ministry that goes far beyond what a few people in an office can do. It is all of us working together, with the resources and gifts God has given each of us, that help the Kingdom of God expand in a variety of remarkable ways.

Three generous donors have pooled their resources to offer a $35,000 matching fund challenge. We have received 53% ($18,350). I invite you to double your impact and help us maximize this opportunity. The matching fund closes April 30.

Thank you for your support of this work. May God also establish the work of your hands (Ps. 90:17). %

Camp this weekend was a gift from God sent to my life at the right time. With walking through a lot of wilderness experiences the last year, my love for singing was becoming dead. This weekend was an encouragement and brought a spark of passion again for singing.
